

GUIDANCE AND PROCEDURE ON REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS AND ASSISTANCE ANIMALS IN UNIVERSITY HOUSING

One common type of reasonable accommodation may be allowing a person with a disability to keep an assistance animal in their university housing or to allow an assistance animal to accompany a visitor to the residence hall. An assistance animal is any animal that works, provides assistance, performs tasks for the benefit of a person with a disability, or provides emotional support that alleviates one or more identified symptoms or effects of a person's disability. Cleveland State University recognizes the importance of allowing assistance animals necessary to provide individuals with disabilities an equal opportunity to use and enjoy University housing.

An assistance animal does not necessarily need to be trained, and is not limited to any specific type of animal. An assistance animal is restricted to the residence of the individual, and may not accompany the resident to other areas of the university without permission.

REQUESTING AN ASSISTANCE ANIMAL

Although individuals are generally prohibited from having animals in University housing, CSU will consider a request by an individual with a disability for a reasonable accommodation from this prohibition to allow an assistance animal. However, no assistance animal may be kept in University housing at any time prior to the individual receiving approval as a reasonable accommodation pursuant to this Policy.

A resident or visitor wishing to request an assistance animal should follow CSU's general procedures for requesting an accommodation, which can be found on the Office for Disability Services' (ODS) website. ODS may require a statement from a revitable obitor (rol) 2758 (rol) 461.8 (r) of mod 8 eoe t) -191 e 0 Tr 0.2 (ar) 58 (e) or counseling to persons with disabilities, including, but not limited to, doctors, physician assistants, psychiatrists, psychologists, or social workers.

Cleveland States University, in consultation with the resident, and other parties, as appropriate, may consider the criteria below in determining whether the presence of the animal is reasonable in the making of housing assignments for individuals with assistance animals:

- Whether the animal poses or has posed in the past a direct threat to the individual or others;
- Whether the animal causes or has caused excessive damage to housing beyond reasonable wear and tear;
- Whether the size of the animal is too large for available assigned housing space;
- Whether the animal's presence would force another individual from individual housing (e.g. serious allergies);
- Whether the animal's presence otherwise violates individuals' right to peace and quiet enjoyment; and
- Whether the animal is housebroken or is unable to live with others in a reasonable mann $34161.32.
