standing or ad hoc committee of which the faculty member is chair. This limited membership does not include any other rights, such as the right to vote or to be included in quorum computations.

- (1) The committee shall consist of the senate president, serving as chairperson, the senate vice president, the senate secretary, one elected member of the faculty senate from each of the colleges except the honors college and the college of graduate studies; for each five elected members to faculty senate beyond five, each college shall have an additional elected member of faculty senate on the committee. The elected member(s) to serve on the committee from each college shall be chosen promptly by those elected representatives from the college on the faculty senate who are entitled to membership on the faculty senate for the upcoming year. Elected members serve on the academic steering committee for a term of one year from September first to August thirty-first. Five other faculty members serve ex officio as voting members on the academic steering committee by virtue of their positions as chair of the budget and finance committee, the admissions and standards committee, the university curriculum committee, the university faculty affairs committee, and the undergraduate student success committee. These five members serve only during their terms as chairs of their respective standing committees. The elected faculty representative to the board of trustees shall serve as an ex officio non-voting corresponding member.
- (2) The president of the university and the provost of the university shall be ex officio, non-voting, corresponding members of the committee. The senate secretary shall serve as secretary of the committee.
- (3) The functions of the committee are:
 - (a) To appoint such faculty members of all other standing committees of the faculty senate as are designated appointed members in these bylaws; to appoint ad hoc committees of the faculty senate; and to designate the chairpersons of all committees to whom it appoints members. Such designated committee chairpersons shall have, as a result of their designation, ex officio limited membership on faculty senate in accordance with paragraph (B) of this rule above. Eligibility to be appointed members of each committee is described in the section relating to that committee. The names of the members of each standing committee shall be reported to the senate secretary.

- (b) To prepare the agenda for faculty senate for distribution by the senate secretary.
- (c) To take such action regarding affairs of faculty senate as may be necessary between meetings.
- (d) To advise the president and the faculty senate on the committee structure of the faculty organization.
- (e) To serve as the informal hearing committee specified in the procedural standards in faculty dismissal proceedings with the responsibilities there specified (see rule 3344-11-15 of the Administrative Code.)
- (f) To serve as the committee of the faculty senate that consults with the administration regarding matters of strategic planning.

(E) University curriculum committee.

- (1) The committee shall consist of the chief academic officer and the director of university libraries or their representatives and the university registrar as ex officio corresponding members; one appointed member from each of the colleges other than the honors college, the college of liberal arts and social sciences and the college of graduate studies; two appointed members from the college of liberal arts and social sciences, one
